DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The claims contain the following subject matter such as “the carrier ring and rod-shaped element are in plastically deformed state which is free of thermal treatment effects and scuffing” that was not described in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bailey (4,475,030).

Bailey teaches a glow plug 10 comprising a rod-shaped heating element 22 composed of an electrically conductive ceramic, an electrically conductive carrier ring 46, and a tubular casing 18 surrounding the rod and the carrier ring.

Art Unit: 3742

According to MPEP 2113, claims 1-2 are product-by-process claims and are unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process. In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985).

3. Claims 1- 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Haussner et al (6,605,801).

Haussner teaches a glow plug (Figures 1-6) comprising a rod-shaped heating element 1, an electrically insulated cylindrical carrier ring 3 for attachment to the heating element, an electrically conductive, metal contact sleeve 4, a tubular casing 7 for surrounding the rod-shaped heating element, and the cylinder ring 3 has an external diameter which is greater than that of the sleeve 4.

According to MPEP 2113, claims 1-3 are product-by-process claims and are unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process. In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985).

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 12/29/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The examiner has considered a structured limitation such as "magnetic formation", but the claimed product appears to be the same or similar to that of the prior art.

Therefore, in accordance with MPEP 2113, page 2100-59:

"... The burden shifts to applicant to come forward with evidence establishing an unobvious difference between the claimed product and the prior art product." In re Marosi, 710 F.2d 798, 802, 218 USPQ 289, 292 (Fed. Cir. 1983)"; and Applicant must bear in mind that "As a practical matter, the Patent Office is not equipped to manufacture products by the myriad of processes put before it and then obtain prior art products and make physical comparisons therewith". In re Brown, 459 F. 2d 531, 535, 173 USPQ 685, 688 (CCPA 1972).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Leonid M Fastovsky whose telephone number is 571-272-4778. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th. 8.00 am -6.00 pm.
